LET'S TALK ABOUT END-OF-LIFE CARE

Special Guest Speaker:
Fr. Tom Coughlin

Preparing Together for the Future

Planning Ahead • Sharing Your Wishes • Supporting Your Family

WHY HAVE THIS CONVERSATION?

Talking about end-of-life care is not always easy. Planning ahead can help you and your family understand your choices and feel more prepared.

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN:

- Healthcare choices and decisions
- How to share your wishes with family
- Important documents to prepare
- Understanding care options
- How to support your loved ones

DEAF-FRIENDLY PRESENTATION

Presented in ASL
Visual examples and easy-to-understand info
Time for questions and discussion
A respectful and welcoming space for everyone

EVENT INFORMATION

Date: Saturday, November 21, 2026
Time: 10 am – 3 pm
Location: Parma Powers Branch Library,6996 Powers Boulevard, Parma, OH 44129

Kindly RSVP by November 14, 2026

Food and refreshments will be provided

Join us for an important and meaningful time of learning, sharing, and preparing together.

Let's have important conversations today to help our families tomorrow.

More info/contact 1946CCDC@gmail.com or (216) 370-7722